Sunday October 7th dawned cool but clear as we met for our fall color tour. A good mix of cars and drivers came out for the run up to Bald Mountain Pass.

Starting at the zoo, we headed up Emigration Canyon towards Park City. After a short stop for gas and victuals we motored up Brown's Canyon and on to the Mirror Lake road. Soapstone Basin provided the location for a nice picnic lunch down by the river. After lunch the group headed up to the top of the pass (10,715 ft) to enjoy the road and the view from the top. From there the group dispersed downward to whence they came.

Thanks to all for coming out, and to Roger Davis for the website pictures and Paul Jaroch for selling the shirts and passing around the sign up list. A lovely, if chilly drive — I'll admit I had the top up. A nice close to the driving season, now it's time to think about those winter projects and getting things ready for next summer.

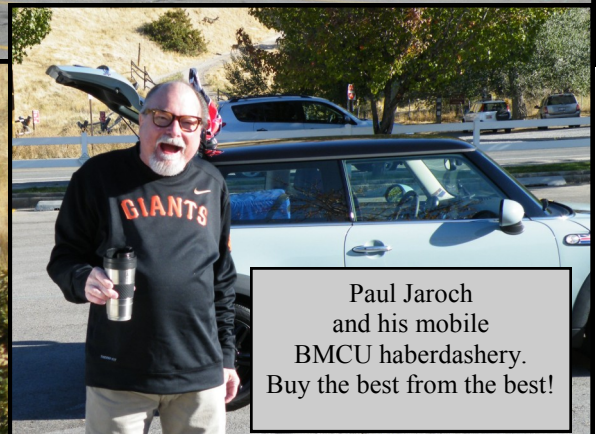

Joining us were Jon & Susan Hermance MG-TF, Kevin & Marie Cowan AH 100 and MGB, Pugs & Diane Caddie Boat mobile, Marty Van Nood & Stinky TR 6, Werner & Juu Juu TR 6, Bob & Sharon Spitfire, Laura Hermance & Mike MGB GT, Rich Weyland TR 250, Roger & Jill Davis Sunbeam Alpine, Robin Ventress & Zane Holmquist Morgan +8, Jim Stover & Linda TR 6, Rob & Mary Foye Jaguar XJS, Andrew Frink '70 MGB RHD, Rob Norcross '67 Sunbeam Alpine. Jeff & Lina Anderson '77MGB, Paul Jaroch MINI Cooper.
